

April 24, 2008

PLEASE ATTEND our first gathering for women in the Dept of Medicine!

May 7, 2008 from 4-5:30 pm, CSC H6/215

Dr. Valerie Gilchrist - chair of UW-SMPH Department of Family Medicine-will be our guest, sponsored by DOM's Office for Women's Faculty Development. She will speak beginning at 4:30 pm on:

"Finding your voice - issues for women and professional writing" in a talk open to senior and junior women faculty, fellows, clinical instructors and residents in the Department of Medicine. Please come and spread the word! There will be opportunity to network before and after. Thanks and we look forward to seeing you.

RSVP to lh@medicine.wisc.edu

2008 Summer Public Health Institute
Madison, Wisconsin • July 14 – August 22, 2008

Registration is now open for the 2008 Summer Public Health Institute. These one and two week courses offer academic or continuing education credits* and will benefit graduate and special students, physicians, nurses, pharmacists, veterinarians and other health professionals.

Course Topics Include:

- Survey Methods for Public Health Professionals
- Epidemiology 101
- American Indian Health and Well-Being
- Communicating Public Health Effectively
- Update in Emerging Infectious Diseases Affecting Public Health
- Introduction to Social Marketing in Public Health
- Health Insurance Coverage and State Health Reform
- Global Environmental Public Health
- Writing for Scholarly Publication
- Issues in Tobacco Use and Control
- Survey of Public Health Disaster Management
- Leadership Principles and Public Health Practice

* CEU's, ANCC and Iowa nursing contact hours are available for all courses.
AMA PRA Category 1™ credit will be offered for the Infectious Disease course only.

Click here to go to the official website for more information.

Sponsored by
Office of Continuing Professional Development at the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health
Department of Population Health Sciences
University of Wisconsin-Madison Continuing Education in Nursing

The Office for Women's Faculty Development has funding to offset tuition costs. Please contact the office if you are interested. The typical award will be initially limited to $200-250.

The UW-Madison School of Medicine and Public Health, the UW-Madison Institute for Clinical and Translational Research (ICTR) and the Marshfield Clinic Research Foundation invite you to participate in the 2008 Short Course in Clinical Research, June 12th-13th from 8:00am - 4:00pm in the Health Sciences Learning Center on the UW Madison Campus.

The Short Course in Clinical Research is intended to introduce students and medical professionals to the importance and role of clinical and translational research in health care. Participants will be provided an overview of the knowledge and skills needed to conduct research and examples of how they are applied to address clinical issues and problems.

For more information, please visit the News section of ICTR's website (www.ictr.wisc.edu) or call 608-262-3903

Applications are now being accepted for the 2008 Faculty Horizons Program at University of Maryland-Baltimore County, which will be held July 10-12, 2008.

PURPOSE: The workshop, funded by the National Science Foundation ADVANCE Program, is intended to provide post-doctoral research fellows and upper-level graduate students, particularly women, in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics with necessary skills to become successful tenure-track faculty in the United States. Special attention is paid to including women from underrepresented groups.

APPLICATIONS: Due to limited space, everyone must apply on-line (<http://www.umbc.edu/advance/registration08/>) and be accepted to attend. The application is available from April 7, 2008 - May 5, 2008. Funds are available to defray the cost of participation.

DISSEMINATION: Please share this announcement widely with those you think may be interested in attending, or those who may know someone who would find this workshop beneficial.

Please email advance@umbc.edu for any additional information or questions. For the most up-to-date workshop information, please visit <http://www.umbc.edu/advance> and click on Faculty Horizons.

Dean Michael Knetter, School of Business, invites you to apply to join the new program:

2008 WEB: WISCONSIN ENTREPRENEURIAL BOOTCAMP

Intensive Summer Program for Science/Engineering Graduate Students

WHEN: July 20 - July 25 (Sunday afternoon through Friday). Full time, full commitment immersion program with evening assignments and events.

WHERE: UW-Madison campus. Classrooms in Grainger Hall.

ELIGIBILITY: Physical, life science or engineering graduate students or post docs preferred. Must be enrolled at UW-Madison. Competitive admissions with limited seats.

COST: No cost to participants due to generous donations from program sponsors

Sample topics:

- Imagining and assessing products and markets
- Key features of life sciences industries
- Funding sources and financial analysis for start-ups
- Intellectual property techniques and strategies
- Business models as an art form. Authenticity in entrepreneurship.

Anticipated activities: Readings, case analyses, real-time work with ideas, lively social events, expert panels, practice in financial and market assessment and other tools.

This is not a sit-back and list part-time course. It's an exciting, dig deep, learning experience.

TO APPLY PLEASE GO TO <http://www.bus.wisc.edu/weinertcenter/web.asp>
You are strongly encouraged to have a faculty sponsor for this program.

If you prefer not to receive these notices, send me an email and I will remove your name from the address lists.